It's not really possible to make an informed decision when all you hear are deliberate lies meant to make you question your own reality. It doesn't fully absolve the voters, but the blame is on the Republican party adopting a strategy meant to break the democratic process of an informed citizenry.

Legal affairs of Donald Trump - Wikipedia

Trump and some investors bought the company back that same year for $225 million. As part of the agreement, Trump withdrew a $100 million lawsuit he had filed against the casino's owners alleging damage to the Trump brand. Trump re-negotiated the debt, reducing by over $1 billion the repayments required to bondholders.
